Theodore Front Musical Literature is pleased to offer
Béla Bartók Complete Critical Edition

Published jointly by G. Henle Verlag München and Editio Musica Budapest

The Complete Edition comprises published and posthumous works by Bartok. It also presents very divergent versions – including ones that have not previously been accessible. The accompanying texts for all of the volumes contain a description and evaluation of all available sources, as well as critical commentaries. In addition to providing an introduction to the work’s genesis, each volume also contains editorial notes for the performer. Editors: László Somfai, László Vikárius, Márton Kerékfy. With critical commentaries and footnotes in English. Edition sources: Bartók Archives of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences.

This scholarly edition will be comprised of 48 volumes in seven series:
I. Stage works (six volumes) V. Piano works (nine volumes)
II. Vocal works (five volumes) VI. Piano reductions (four volumes)
III. Orchestral works (fifteen volumes) VII. Appendix (two volumes)
IV. Chamber works (seven volumes)

The first six volumes scheduled to be published:
Volume 37: For Children – early and revised versions with critical commentaries: HN 6200
Volume 24: Concerto for Orchestra – with critical commentaries: HN 6201
Volume 38: Works for Piano Solo 1914-1920 – with critical commentaries: HN 6202
Volume 9: Choral Works – with critical commentaries: HN 6205
Volume 29: String Quartets - score: HN 6206
Volume 30: String Quartets – critical commentaries: HN 6207

All volumes are stitch-bound in teal-colored cloth with silver embossing. The first volume is due to be published late 2016. Subscriptions Invited!
